

CURRICULUM OVERVIEW

Please contact your child's subject teacher or Head of Department for answers to subject related questions

SUBJECT	Olympic Values	YEAR GROUP	9
----------------	-----------------------	-------------------	----------

	Lesson Content	Subject Assessment Methods	Opportunities for Home Learning
LESSON 1-2	Introduction to Olympic Values	Teacher assessment of class work and understanding of the Olympic Values.	Students to research the Olympic Values and produce a poster which best represents the Olympic Values.
LESSON 3-5	Life Choices and Personal Decisions (Equality and Human Rights)	Students assessed throughout the unit of work. Teacher assessment reinforced throughout. Work books marked and knowledge and understanding assessed during every lesson.	Students to understand how to appreciate others and respect the human rights of every individual.
LESSON 5-11	Sexual Education and Health	Students to understand sexual education. They will develop knowledge about sexual health. Teacher to assess students understanding during every lesson and by marking completed work.	Many opportunities available to develop this topic outside of school. Research within this area will be key and homework issued to consolidate student understanding within this area.
LESSON 12-16	Volunteering and Community Responsibility	Teacher assessment incorporated throughout. Workbooks marked to a high standard to assess students' knowledge and understanding of the topic.	Students given volunteering links and ideas pursued within this field. Community responsibility will also be highlighted within lessons and students will be expected to follow these within everyday life.
LESSON 16-20	International Community Enterprise project.	Teacher assessment throughout the unit of work. Peer and self-assessment incorporated to develop students' understanding.	Olympic ideas pursued through a group project. Students to work together to produce a piece of work which will contribute to them understanding the whole international Olympic concept and tradition.